Tender to Talitha G.

A spectacular mahogany tender to the Getty family's iconic 1930, 80m yacht Talithais now available for sale. Currently located in Venice, Italy, Tender to Talitha G. is a genuine, original Hacker-Craft, designed by the legendary John Hacker, multiple world speedboat champion, and built at his renowned shipyard in Upstate New York.

This elegant, timeless masterpiece of craftsmanship is powered by a 315hp Yanmar turbo diesel engine, allowing her to effortlessly glide across the water. Meticulously restored and maintained in excellent condition, she is offered for sale by her current owner, a discerning collector, due to limited opportunities for personal use.

As one of possibly only two Hacker-Crafts in Europe, she offers a rare and striking alternative to Italian Rivas, turning heads amidst the unique scenery of Venice and the Lagoon. Tender to Talitha measures 8.53m x 2.21m, is certified for up to 10 passengers, and is offered at 195,000 (VAT paid).

Tender to Talitha G. is part of a distinguished classic yacht collection and represents a rare opportunity to acquire a vessel from a knowledgeable collector who has maintained her with exceptional care and expertise.
